Refund Policy
PilatesITC gives all students a two-week cooling off period, from receipt of their signed Enrolment Form, in which he/she may decide not to go ahead with enrolment. If the applicant decides to take advantage of the cooling off period any course fees paid will be refunded minus a $200 withdrawal fee. After the cooling off period has expired there will be no refund allowed on course fees paid unless exceptional circumstances* can be substantiated in which case any refund will be considered by management on a case-by-case basis.

Following commencement of the course no course fees paid will be refundable and all payment schedules must be honoured by the student, or the student’s parent/guardian, unless exceptional circumstances* can be proved.

PilatesITC advises all students to select their course carefully, as we cannot accept responsibility for changes in student’s personal circumstances or work commitments, which may occur after the commencement of the course.

*Exceptional Circumstances would include debilitating illness, bereavement or tragedy within immediate family or similar extenuating circumstances, but does not include reasons such as heavy workload, personal circumstances (i.e.: moving house/location, tired, lack of time etc.), minor medical ailments, computer issues or similar.

Credit Policy
All fees and payments are subject to PilatesITC payment policy being:

Following commencement of the course no course fees paid will be refundable and the student or student’s parent/guardian must honour all payment schedules. The payment schedule will be considered legally binding as per the signed PilatesITC Enrolment Terms and Conditions.

Any fees that are not paid within 7 days following the scheduled payment date will attract a 2.5% penalty fee, unless an alternative payment arrangement has been negotiated with the Training Manager and/or a Director. Should a scheduled payment still not be paid within 21 days of the scheduled payment date, the penalty will continue to rise by 5% for every 21 day term if the payment remains unpaid without the Training Manager and/or Director’s prior arranged consent.

Payments will be considered delinquent payments if remaining unpaid for 30 days and over. At 30 days overdue late payments will result in suspension from the course. At 60 days overdue the delinquent payment will be handed to legal advisors for communications. At 90 days the delinquent payment will be reported to credit reporting agencies. All communications regarding late and delinquent payments will be recorded.

Required Texts
All students will be issued with PilatesITC course materials (online and hard copy manuals) and the cost of these materials is included in the course fees. Students will be required to read and purchase compulsory further texts as listed for the study of their course. The costs of additional reference materials and text-books are not included in the course fees. Texts may be purchased through PilatesITC (depending on stock levels – please enquire).

How are the courses assessed?
A variety of assessment methods are used in alignment with the principles of competency based training. Where possible PilatesITC makes available reasonable adjustments in assessment for individual needs.

In order to successfully complete a full course and be awarded the qualification all participants MUST:

- Complete all online subjects and course workbooks as directed.
- Attend all scheduled contact and tutorial days (non attendance at any contact day will require previous agreement from the Director or Training Manager, and will be subject to reasonable grounds or reasoning to request such non attendance);
- Complete work experience hours at a PilatesITC Training Studio or at an approved Work Experience Facilitation Studio, or studio or their choice in agreement with PilatesITC.
- Complete self-directed learning requirements as directed.
- Pass all practical and written assessments.
- Maintain a regular workout schedule for course duration (minimum of one supervised and one unsupervised workout per week) – note: additional cost to course fees.

Re-sitting of Assessments
Students will be limited to two attempts at each assessment or examination (including the first or original attempt). If after two attempts, competency has not been achieved, an additional fee of $150 per assessment attempt will be incurred to be able to resit the assessment.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)
PilatesITC recognises all qualifications conferred by other registered training organisations and will recognise prior learning. RPL information and application forms are available from administration. Students are considered enrolled from the date the RPL assessment materials have been sent. Details of assessment criteria and guidance notes are made available to assist in preparing for the RPL and current competency assessment. Students who are deemed not yet competent (NYC) in any area will be required to either re-submit or will be asked to enrol in the full program and submit all course assessment items. RPL applications are assessed by the Director and/or Training Manager. Please note that applications for RPL close 2 weeks after enrolment.

Direct Credit Transfer (DC)
PilatesITC recognises all government recognised (AQF) qualifications or statements of attainment issued by other registered training organisations. Applicants who can demonstrate direct credit transfer will only be required to provide a certified copy of the Academic transcript, which shows a direct match of the unit/s of competency for which credit is sought. If you would like to make an Application for Direct Credit Transfer, please complete the relevant section on your enrolment form or contact Administration for an Application Form.

Articulation and Credit Transfer into other courses
The Advanced Diploma of The Pilates Method and the Diploma of Professional Pilates Instruction may articulate into other qualifications and in some cases direct credit transfer may be given into qualifications recognised within the Australian Qualifications Training Framework.

Grievance/ Complaint and Appeals
PilatesITC has a Grievance/Complaints and Appeals policy, which is provided in the Student Handbook.

“In order to be a professional Pilates teacher, one must experience it (the transformation) first, understanding that it is never complete but a constant evolution of learning.”
